Junior High Retreat: November 20-21, 2009

Come explore with Junior High Youth from the three Presbyteries of Hudson River, Long Island and New York City your God given gifts and talents. We were created to live in community, share our gifts and take care of one another. Life is more than just about us! Come examine how God calls us into loving acts of kindness and learn how you can put your gifts to work by serving your home community and the world. We gather together to connect with one another through recreation, teambuilding, conversation and fun. You will be sent on your way with a plan to use your gifts in your community.
